

Hello Vone,

My name is Imran Farooqui. I am a first-year student studying Electronics and Computer Science. I have no experience of being a representative of anything. I think, anything can be achieved as long as we learn from each other and have communication with our peers. The feedbacks are very important. I would seek to promote two-way feedback among the CompSoc and students.

Best wishes.